

HESI Med-Surg Custom Exam for Med-Surg II Class (2nd Class)

Most All Questions & Answers on this document!

Brand New for Med Surg II Classes – Test Bank

An older client is being admitted to a skilled nursing facility from an acute care hospital following a cerebrovascular accident (CVA). When reviewing the client's prescribed medications, which intervention should the nurse implement first?

- A Determine which medications may be given in generic form rather than brand name only.
- B Compare admission prescriptions with the list of medications previously taken by the client.
- C Provide client teaching regarding the desired effects of the client's admission prescriptions.
- D Reconcile prescribed medication dosages with the published recommended dosage ranges.

16. an older adult male is admitted three days after a fall because his wife called 911 this morning when he became confused. the client has a history of chronic kidney disease and diabetes and has vital signs on admission heart rate 120 beats respirations 12 breaths and blood pressure 180/96. which assessment finding warrants immediate intervention by the nurse?

16 of 55

An older adult male is admitted three days after a fall because his wife called 911 this morning when he became confused. The client has a history of chronic kidney disease and diabetes, and his vital signs on admission are heart rate 120 beats/minute, respirations 12 breaths/minute, and blood pressure 180/96 mmHg. Which assessment finding warrants immediate intervention by the nurse?

- A Describes ringing in the ears.
- B Blood glucose is 160 mg/dl (8.9 mmol/L).
- C Complains of a severe headache.
- D Urine output is concentrated.